

'09-'10 Tuition and Fees

Application Fee	$100
Tuition	$28,336
$1,500 non-refundable deposit due upon acceptance; $16,102 due June 1; $10,734 due December 1.
If tuition is paid in one installment by June 15, you may take a $500 discount, for a total of $27,836 ($26,336 due after the $1,500 deposit.)
Other Fees
Physical Education (payable at Orientation in August).	$450
Books, supplies, and lab fees (payable at Orientation in August). Approximate cost:	$650
Afterschool: Fees vary based on usage. Organized activities are available for middle school students and directed study hall is available for high school students from 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.

Tuition Assistance

Commonwealth Academy is happy to provide tuition assistance to the fullest extent possible for qualifying families. Tuition Assistance is based solely on need, as determined by FAST (Financial Aid for Student Tuition) through ISM (Independent School Management), and approval by the Financial Aid Committee based upon available funds. Please submit an online application to FAST via the Commonwealth Academy website: www.commonwealthacademy.org/admission/forms.htm

Commonwealth Academy is accredited by the Virginia Association of Independent Schools and is licensed by the state of Virginia to serve specific learning disabled and ADHD children.